Dear Mr. Kelso:

Thank you for your letter of October 1st. I appreciate the material that you are sending me. The more meetings I have, including one last week in which we are trying to make capitalists out of poor people, the more I am convinced of the merit of your approach. The business of trying to qualify some of these folks is not only exhausting but too frequently self-defeating. I doubt whether the SBA will survive some of the loss experiences that they have and will encounter.

It is good to know that you have had relationships with Wayne Thompson. He is quite a man and is doing a splendid job. I get to California now and then. But, for the next few months, I shall be making a few trips to Europe. Consequently, if you are coming this way, I will be delighted to see you.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Philip M. Klutznick
